

Colleen Meakim, MSN, RN

Colleen has been a nursing educator for most of her nursing career. She was a faculty member for 21 years at Brandywine School of Nursing and the Program Director for 11 years. She has experience in staff development as well as nursing education.

She has been the Director of Villanova's Learning Resource Center for 12 years. In that role she has supported and developed the simulation program and enhanced the College's simulation lab environment and resources. She has served in a variety of roles for INACSL including: member of the INACSL Website Task Force, the INACSL Journal Committee, INACSL Conference Task Force, and was involved in planning the 2006 LRC Conference held in Philadelphia, and provided by Villanova University. She was VP for Communications from 2006-2008 and the BSN Representative from 2008-2011. She continues to serve on the Programs and Conference Planning Committees.

She has presented on topics such as: a learning styles program, Evaluation of LRCs, Managing an LRC, and simulation development, curricular integration, and debriefing.