

VICE PRESIDENT of COMMUNICATIONS -- BEVERLY HEWETT PhD, RN

Beverly Hewett is Clinical Assistant Professor at Idaho State University. Beverly has served on the Ad Hoc Task force to develop a survey determining interest in a professional organization for learning resource center faculty and staff developers. She is a charter member of INACSL and has served on the Communications Committee as a member for the past 4 years, web site manager for 2 years and is currently the listserv manager. Beverly has been a nurse educator for much of her nursing career. Most of her responsibility for the past 17 years has been as Coordinator of Idaho State University School of Nursing Learning Resource Center. In that role she has enhanced the school of nursing's simulation lab environment and resources. Currently her responsibilities include teaching in both the graduate and undergraduate programs. At ISU School of Nursing, Beverly is a member of the Simulation Steering Committee, which developed and implemented an organizational capacity building model, which was published in Clinical Simulation in Nursing in 2009. She is also a member of the Office of Professional Development and Northwest Rural Nurse Advisory Committees. Duties include program development and evaluation of simulation via asynchronous and synchronous distance technologies and review of continuing education standards.
